

1. Where have you seen post truth ideals expressed in our world? Instances where emotions and personal beliefs guide truth rather than an objective truth.
2. Be honest! Do you see any instances of post truth in your own life?
3. Read Matthew 6:9-13. What comments, thoughts, or questions do you have after reading the words "Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven"?
4. Read 2 Kings 4:32-37. How does this example of prayer differ from the examples in Matthew 6:5-8?
5. What does it mean to ask God's will to be done?
6. If God's will were truly and completely done on earth, to the point where heaven and earth looked the same, what would earth look like?
7. Are there any aspects of God's will that scare you? What aspects excite you?
8. What does it look like to be people committed to God's objective truth instead of post truth people?
9. As a small group or with a couple of friends, make a list of some of God's objective truths. Those truths that supersede race, culture, time in history, etc. Pray that the Body of Christ would commit to those truths in spite of our post truth culture.

The _____: act only according to that maxim where you can, at the same time, will that it should become a universal law

"To be honest..."

Few words are more _____ than "your will be done," even to Christians

Following God is _____ safe

What is prayer for, though?

If asking for God's will to be done scares you, then you don't understand _____ you're talking about

The Goodness of God

Isaiah 11 God will reconcile the _____ kingdom

Isaiah 35 God will reconcile the _____ kingdom

Revelation 21:4 God will reconcile the _____ kingdom

Why then, are we _____ of praying,
"Your will be done"?